Elective course

For students of years 1 – 5; 12 hrs in summer semester

“New trends in experimental and clinical anatomy”

Lectures with discussion

The course is concluded by the test which covers all Lectures presented. The questions are usually one per lecture, usually announced at the beginning of each.

Small Lecture Hall of the Institute of Anatomy

Wednesday at 16:30

April 11  Cardiac conduction system: new look at the century-old structure (prof. David Sedmera)

April 18  Facial reconstruction if skull is malformed- Anatomy or Art ? (dr. Ivo Klepáček)

April 25  Mechanoreceptors: structure and function (prof. Zdenek Halata)

May 2    The neural crest: its derivatives and stem cells (prof. M. Grim)

May 9    Cancer microenviroment (dr. P. Szabo)

May 16   Rector’s day

May 23   Why five fingers ? Developmental aspects of the limb anatomy (dr. P. Snajdr) + Test

February 14, 2018

Dr. P. Šnajdr